

Learn soccer skills from UNC and US National Team players!

Participate in a soccer clinic benefitting
Carolina For Kibera
a non-profit organization doing community development in the Kibera slum of Kenya
<http://cfk.unc.edu>

Who?

Girls and boys of any skill level, ages 6-18

When?

Sunday, Dec. 13th,
1-5 pm (check-in at 12:30)

Where?

Finley Fields,
Chapel Hill, NC

What?

A Soccer Clinic led by some of the nation's best players. Participants will also learn how CFK uses soccer to promote cross cultural understanding in Kibera, the largest slum in East Africa.

How much?

Minimum $50 donation per participant, $25 per additional player in a family; team discounts available

Registration form is online at: <http://cfk.unc.edu/sports-wgo.php>

Questions? Email SoccerClinic@carolinaforkibera.org

*Current and former men's and women's UNC and U.S. National Team players will provide instruction; all players are subject to availability with regard to team commitments.

CAROLINA FOR KIBERA (CFK)
TUUNGANE TUUNGAZE (LET'S UNITE AND SHED LIGHT)